Between 2013 and 2014 CC Strombeek displayed several works from the collection of the S.M.A.K., Ghent. By joining forces with this internationally acclaimed museum of contemporary art and private collectors; the cultural centre of Strombeek, located close to Brussels, was able to show an impressive body of work by established and up-and-coming international artists. In no less than ten project exhibitions, CC Strombeek gathered work by such artists as Franz West, Daniel Buren, Raoul De Keyser, Honoré d'O, Willy De Sauter, Jef Gheys, Ann-Veronica Janssens, Sol LeWitt, Gerhard Richter, Andy Warhol and many more. Focussing on art from the sixties until this day, the exhibition program of curators Luk Lambrecht and Lieze Eneman opens art practice from the last five decades. The book contains a full complement of exhibition views with an impressive body of accompanying essays.
