

Léo Favier // Jungle or clearing a path through the family trees with a machete

'With texts, drawings, models, photographs and schematics, 'Jungle' tells the story of a Christmas eve dinner in a farm in Southern France. This is the last time the family gathered in the farm owned by the grand father. During the dinner, the family members talk about wild animals, food, burglaries, housing, inheritance... until it is time to open the Christmas presents.
