

Bernhard Cella // Collecting Books A selection on recent Art and Artists' Books produced in Austria

A snapshot of the art system using the book as a medium.

This book features the first curated selection of Austrian art books and artists' books produced over the last two years. Who publishes art books and artists' books today and what content do they articulate? This publication contains a synopsis of statements by the actors, their descriptions of themselves, and a brief introduction to each of the curated books.

Participants: Museums, firms, private foundations, small publishers, and individual artists.

A snapshot of the art system using the book as a medium.
