A beautiful monograph on the work of Dutch artist Anuli Croon.

'Along. We recognize everything in Anuli Croon's large, clear paintings. The hands, eyes, buildings and ornaments are lovingly meticulous, but at the same time unsettling in their anonymity. We recognize everything and yet we go astray among the figures and fragments of a metropolis. And then, disorientated, we see the beautiful composition, the intense colour patterns and the texture.' - Landa van Vliet

Anuli Croon (Leeuwarden, 1964) lives and works since 1990 in Rotterdam and graduated from the Royal Academy of Art and Design 's-Hertogenbosch in 1989.
