

Dennis Hankvist (Ed.) // Rotunda II Gustav Appell Arkitektkontor

Rotunda is a book series produced by Trema Förlag. It focuses on contemporary architecture from Scandinavia (Sweden, Norway and Denmark). Each book in the series focuses on one single office or architect, showcasing a selection of their projects as well as interviewing them to try and find the reasons behind their work and their ethos. The second book in the series is about the Swedish office Gustav Appell Arkitektkontor.

- Interview with Gustav Appell Arkitektkontor by Malin Heyman
- 60 colour and black and white photographs
- 30 drawing and illustrations

Gustav Appell Arkitektkontor is a Stockholm-based architecture office founded in 2007 by Gustav Appell. Notable work includes Kvillebäcken saluhall, Bro Park Racecourse as well as a modern take on the traditional Scandinavian timberhouse.

Also available: Rotunda I - General Architecture

Contributors: Malin Heyman

Publisher: Trema Förlag. 184 pages. 2019. Format: Hardback. 23cm x 30cm.
100 colour illustrations. English. Swedish. ISBN: 9789188539052. 35,00 €.