

Sharon Kivland // Emptiness & Silence A Supplement to Reading Nana

Emile Zola's novel Nana is re-read and re-written, according to emptiness and silence. There are failed voices, empty glasses and drawing-rooms, and noiseless departures. There is silent laughter. Men and women are dumbfounded. There is a deathly hush and the plains of the new Paris are icy and empty.

Publisher: Ma Bibliotheque. 12 pages. 2017. Format: Paperback. 14cm × 20cm. 3,00 €.